terms & conditions

1. The expression "the Supplier" means Voxjunction. The expression "the Customer" will mean the person, firm, company or entity purchasing services from the Supplier.

2. The Supplier contracts on these conditions only, and acceptance by the Supplier of any order from a Customer will be deemed an acceptance of these Terms and Conditions by the Customer and the presumption is made that they have been read and accepted de facto.

3. Payment is due within 30 days of the date of invoice (unless otherwise specified by the Supplier). The right is also applied to require payment from a Customer outside of the United Kingdom upon receipt of invoice, or with a new client in advance. The licence is not released until agreed payment is made in full.

4. In accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998, as amended and supplemented by the Late Payment of Commercial Debts Regulations 2002 (EC Directive), the right is reserved to charge interest at 8% above the late payment period reference interest rate based on the relevant Bank of England base rate on all amounts outstanding for more than 30 days (the Credit Period) from the Tax Date indicated on the invoice; and further to make a statutory compensatory charge on late payments. Such charges may be applied and added to the debt. Details of these charges can be found at: <http://payontime.co.uk/late-payment-legislation-interest-calculators>

5: The right is reserved to levy a minimum charge of £5 for each written reminder or statement produced and sent after the Credit Period.

6: The supply of any future services may be withdrawn in the event of a breach of these Terms and Conditions.

7: The Customer undertakes that they will notify the Supplier if they shall assign, transfer or sell any Contract or benefit to which these Terms and Conditions apply.

8: The Customer warrants and undertakes that: (a) they will be responsible for obtaining and paying for all necessary licences and consents for the use of any copyright material contained in, or the inclusion of any person in their production; (b) No copy will breach the copyright or other right of or be defamatory toward any third party; (c) That the use of broadcast work by the Supplier will be made on fully licenced/legal media; (d) they will indemnify and keep the Supplier indemnified against all actions, proceedings, costs, damages, expenses, penalties, claims, demands and liabilities arising from any breach of the above warranties or in any manner whatsoever in consequence of the use of any copy or matter supplied by the Buyer.

9: In the event of any failure by the Buyer to comply with these Terms and Conditions, the Supplier may terminate immediately any licence to the Buyer to broadcast or perform or otherwise exploit the Supplier's work. Contravention of this will be deemed as breach of international copyright law.

10: If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is held by any Court or competent authority as invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part the validity of the remainder of these Terms and Conditions and of the remainder of the provisions in question shall not be affected.

11: Governing Law: The Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts.

12: These Terms and Conditions may be varied from time to time and will be communicated in writing.

Revised May 2020, Alan Bainbridge/Voxjunction
